OLD OAKS COUNTRY CLUB – PURCHASE – NEW YORK

Short Company Biography

Old Oaks Country Club is located in Purchase, New York (Westchester County). The Club was organized in 1925 as an offshoot of the Progress City Club located in Manhattan. It was thereafter known as Progress Country Club, Purchase Country Club, Pine Ridge Country Club, and once again as Purchase Country Club. In 1936, Oak Ridge Country Club merged with Purchase Country Club to form Old Oaks Country Club.

The Clubhouse was originally constructed as a residential estate for a silk merchant named Trenor Luther Park. In 1905, after the death of Mr. Park, William A. Read, of the investment banking firm Dillon, Read & Co., purchased the estate. Though Mr. Read passed away in 1916, the Read family lived at Hill Crest until it was sold to the Club in 1925.

Today, Old Oaks Country Club has more than 400 members. Many members are third and fourth generation. The Club has hosted the USGA's US Open Qualifying Tournament several times, as well as the Metropolitan Golf Association's Senior's Tournament.

The Club is open to members six days per week, from March through December. The facilities include an 18-hole golf course, an 80,000 square foot clubhouse with several dining rooms including a 210-seat ballroom. The Club also has 2 swimming pools, 9 har tru tennis courts 4 of which are covered during the winter months, an indoor golf learning center, 13 guest suites and three cottages.
